

Charge

As part of the continuous quality improvement and performance management system, the Quality Improvement Committee (QIC) exists to oversee and support continuous quality improvement efforts, QI projects, QI training, customer satisfaction and performance/QI-related communications.

Primary Goals

- assure measurable CCHD success with quality improvement efforts
- improve staff capacity to engage in quality improvement efforts
- use customer feedback for improvement planning
- implement effective performance communication strategies
- make the use of quality improvement tools and techniques user friendly, participatory and part of daily work

Primary Activities

- prioritize and select QI projects
- monitor and evaluate QI projects
- provide and/or source technical assistance for QI projects
- assist in the identification, development and implementation of QI projects
- recognize individuals and teams and celebrate milestones and successes
- select, coordinate and evaluate staff quality improvement training
- develop QI training plan based on training needs
- identify and apply for scholarships/grants for supplemental funding sources to use for QI activities and training
- plan and evaluate QIC reporting and communication activities
- track and report on customer satisfaction activity
- monitor and evaluate customer satisfaction activities
- evaluate and update QIC operations periodically
- advocate for and foster a QI culture within the CCHD
- develop and maintain the QI plan; ensure plan meets PHAB requirements
- evaluate, revise and update QI plan periodically
- communicate progress on QI projects to staff at periodic all-staff meeting

Composition/Membership

One member from each division, so at least six of the seven divisions are represented. [Note: Since OPHI and Lab are small divisions, only one of these divisions needs to be represented at the same time. All other divisions shall always be represented.] Total membership shall not be less than six and not be more than seven members.

All levels of the organization shall be represented. In order to achieve that, the membership shall consist of the following:

- 0-1 Division leader or Health Commissioner
- 0-1 Supervisor

- 0-3 Professional staff members
- 0-2 Clerical/Support staff members

The QIC member representing the division leader or Health Commissioner level of the organization shall serve as the QIC Chairperson.

Appointment to the QIC

Staff members of the QIC are either recommended or appointed by division leaders.

Term

Members shall serve a two-year term. After two years, members may be re-appointed by division leaders an unlimited amount of times or division leaders may appoint a new person. Division leaders should always consider new interested people for appointment. If a member is unable to fulfill a two-year term, the division leader shall appoint a replacement. [Note: If a member that is part of an existing QIPT does not get re-appointed, they will still remain a member of the QIPT]

Membership Criteria

Staff are qualified for membership if they meet a minimum of one of the following:

- Have completed or will complete advanced QI training
- Have an interest in and aptitude for performance improvement planning, QI and/or program evaluation
- Commit to develop and promote continuous quality improvement throughout CCHD.
